Looking Forward

Taking care of those in need.

We have already given nearly $300.00 in food cards and rent support to families that have come to us with news of their need. Many thanks to Lisa Sachse who, along with her children, bought a back to school outfit for a 12 year old girl who was brought to our attention. Here is what we need to do now:

Bring Clothes for Mikes Kids

Bring an extra gift for our outreach challenge (see front page)

Bring Food for the Christian Care Center

There is much need, and we can each do something to help. The Acts Christian Fellowship has offered to help with Mike's Kids and the Food pantry. What a blessing they are for us. Let us all share our blessings with others.

In two weeks, on October 18th, we will have the joy of a service of Dedication of Infants and Parents. Please plan to attend and support the new additions to our church family. In these turbulent times, it is a blessing to be able to share of ourselves. It is also a blessing to share in the joy of God's many gifts, including the blessing of birth. We all have much to be thankful for, and as the Psalmist says we should be giving our thanks to God, day and night for those blessings. Giving thanks can be done in isolation, but is best when shared with others in Worship. We have missed the presence of many through these summer months. Worship is just not the same if you are missing, and if you are missing then You are Missing Out on our shared joys. In other words, You need Us, We need You, and without you here we each miss something important. Come and Share of yourselves this Sunday, and don't forget to bring a friend and a dish. Blessings, Hal
