Our Outreach Challenge is over, and what a tremendous response we had. As of this past Sunday we received $637.97 toward the challenge, and the $500.00 matching gift was presented. This brings our total to $1,137.97. Great Job!!!! But the need does not end there. The Golden Box of giving will remain in the Sanctuary through the Christmas Season because there is still much to be done for others.

And, Speaking of much to be done for others, we will be receiving cakes and cookies on Monday November 23rd to be sold in an area wide bake sale on the 24th benefitting the Christian Care Center. Additionally, our youth are planning a food drive at the Sachse Kroger on an upcoming Saturday to fill the CCC pantry. More details to follow.

Don't forget to be cleaning out your closets and pantries for our Mike's Kids clothing drive and our ongoing support of the Christian Care Center. We took a full grocery basket of food to them this morning. They still need staples like peanut butter, jelly, instant potatoes, cereal, and canned meats. Watch the grocery sales. Kroger had cereal on sale last week for $1.50 per box—a great price. At Christmas they make up boxes for Christmas dinners, so canned yams, cranberry sauce and green beans would be a hit too. Keeping the needs of others in our hearts, minds and prayers will only make us all stronger disciples.

Blessings, Hal
